

BEATROUTE

May 2008

FREE

pulse

Trans Europe Expressionist

Calgary born artist Michael Markowsky has come up with a unique spin on the traditional landscape painting, with a new series of works crafted from sketches created while simultaneously driving and drawing. The semi-abstract offerings (see "Circumbendibus" above) will be presented in The Driving Paintings: The French Riviera & California Coast, on display May 1st–12th at the AXIS Contemporary Art gallery, located in Art Central.